

Rosemont Mine FEIS - Record of Decision/COE 404 Permit

Rosemont Mine is new, open-pit copper and molybdenum mine (approx. 4800 acre) proposed for construction mostly on US Forest Service (USFS) National Forest land southeast of Tucson. The USFS is the federal lead and the Corps of Engineers (Corps) is a cooperating agency seeking to adopt the EIS.

Major EPA Issues

Ex. 5 - Deliberative Process